

El Camino Real Master Schematic Design Plan Community Workshop #1

June 1, 2002

9:30 am to 1:00 pm

Mitchell Park Community Center, Palo Alto

WORKSHOP AGENDA

1. Welcome, Purpose and History of the Project (9:30 – 9:35 am)
Steve Emslie, Director, Department of Planning and Community Environment
Virginia Warheit, Project Leader, Dept. of Planning and Community Environment
2. Introduction of Consultant Team, Open House Format, Project Schedule, and Goals & Objectives (9:35 – 9:45 am)
Phil Erickson, Community Design + Architecture (CD+A)
3. Existing Conditions Assessment
 - ❖ Overall Context, Key Urban Design & Land Use Issues, and Segments (Thomas Kronemeyer, CD+A) (9:45 am –
 - ❖ Key Transportation & Traffic Findings (Chris Gray, Fehr & Peers Associates) – 10:00 am)
4. 'Context Sensitive Design' (CSD) (10:00 – 10:30 am)
Reid Ewing, Rutgers University and CSD Expert, Consultant Team
 - ❖ How El Camino became the auto-dominated road it is today
 - ❖ Context Sensitive Design – a paradigm shift
 - ❖ The National Experience
5. Trees on El Camino (10:30 – 10:45 am)
Joe McBride, Urban Forestry Department, UC Berkeley, Consultant Team
 - ❖ Existing Conditions
 - ❖ Objectives
 - ❖ Concept
6. Q&A (10:45 – 11:00 am)
7. Overall Concepts for the El Camino Master Schematic Design Plan (11:00 – 11:30 am)
Phil Erickson and Thomas Kronemeyer, CD+A
 - ❖ Concept Plan(s)
 - ❖ Cross-section Alternatives (Sections, Plans and Elements)
8. Q&A (11:30 – 11:45 am)
9. Open House: review & discussion with consultants, staff, Advisory Group, & Technical Advisory Committee (11:45 – 12:45 pm)

10. Summary of Major Issues/Group Discussion

(12:45 – 1:00 pm)