

Name _____

Date _____

TEXT OR PICTURE?

Read the text below and look at the picture. Answer the questions, then circle if you found the information from the text or picture.

Meerkats are small mammals that live in groups called mobs. They have a tan or brown coat with dark stripes on their backs. These adorable animals are known for their upright posture and keen sense of curiosity. They love to dig tunnels and spend their days searching for food, which mainly consists of insects and small reptiles. Meerkats are also very social and communicate with each other through various vocalizations.

Where do meerkats live?

Text

Picture

How do meerkats spend their day?

Text

Picture

What do meerkats eat?

Text

Picture

What color are meerkats?

Text

Picture